

AVOIDING ADDICTION & FINDING TRUE HAPPINESS

A powerful, moving assembly to inspire teens to live drug free & make a difference

Drug free that's me Presents Todd Sylvester

Todd has over 20 years experience sharing his personal story of overcoming addiction to live a purposeful & rewarding life. Todd relates to teens because he's real & shoots it straight in a compelling way that has an impact to change lives!

- ▶ Pot legalization is sending mixed messages to teens
- ▶ Marijuana is addictive. About 1 in 6 people start using as a teen
- ▶ 21.4% Of High School Sr.'s used pot in the past 30 days
- ▶ When teens become addicted they start to fail in school, etc.

"It's my pleasure to endorse Todd Sylvester & his message to youth about the dangers of substance abuse. He tells the truth, from the perspective of experience & genuine caring"

Kent Norton, KSL-TV

"Todd has a unique gift to develop trusting relationships quickly, which is really the key for inspiring change in another person...he can speak to a person's soul & help them find their true motive to change"

Holley Jeppson, CMHC Director of Coaching, Candeo

"In my 21 years of teaching experience, this has been one of the most appropriate anti-drug programs I've seen"

Kathryne J. Bogue, Anti-Drug Specialist

"I could recommend this program to any school"

James C. Hinkle, Principal
